Newsletter

ELA OR - HELLO

Wandiyali would like to pay respects to our Elders past, present and future. We are in the country of the Worimi, Gamilleroi, Wanarua, Gweagul, Darkinjung, Biripi and Awabakal peoples. We respectfully acknowledge their Elders, celebrate their continuing culture and the living memory of their ancestors.

The Wandiyali Going Home Staying Home newsletter aims at keeping our clients and the community up to date with what is going on not only here at Wandiyali, but within the community.

Within this newsletter

Wayapa Baby Time - Wallsend Library

Join Indigenous health practitioner Sarah Corrigan from Rainbow Crow Cultural Collective for a special Wayapa program for babies and their carers.

Wayapa® is an earth connection practice that is based on ancient Indigenous wisdom, focusing on taking care of the Earth as the starting point for creating Earth Mind Body Spirit well-being.

Wayapa Baby Time is a four-week program.

Ages: For babies aged 0-12 months and their carer.

Bookings essential. Please book spaces for parent/carer and babies as we have a maximum capacity for each session (minimum 2 tickets per booking e.g. an adult and any babies attending).

Monday 6, 13, 20, 27 March, 10:30-11:15am

PRESS PLAY Curious Creatures Performance Workshop

Multi-Arts Pavilion (MAP mima) Lake Macquarie 96 Creek Reserve Road Speers Point, NSW 2284

Create a Creature Mask and step into the 360 degree animated world of WildLife by multimedia artist James Price at MAP mima in Speers Point Park. In this 30-minute performance workshop, local masters of puppetry Curious Legends will help you discover how to bring your Creature Mask to life and release your inner wild thing.

Please note - all participants need to make a mask in the FREE Curious Creatures Mask Making Workshop onsite from 4pm prior to entering the Performance Workshop.

Everyone is invited to come together and be truly wild at the Curious Creatures Party. Boogie to the beats with our Illuminated Giants puppets from 7:30 until 8pm!

Accompanying the fun will be two food trucks serving delicious eats, brought to you by Friday Night Foodies. Crescent Star Food will be making freshly crafted Turkish gozleme and - if you're in the mood for a sweet treat - Lulu's Gelato will be serving seven different flavours of gelato, including two dairy-free options.

FRIENDSHIP CENTRE

WELCOME TO A HEALING PLACE!

Our counsellors and trainee counsellors are of the highest level they are all Australian qualified and work as volunteers to further gain experience.

We have over 50 counsellors that are professional, multi-lingual and passionate about mental health.

The Friendship Centre provides supervision and training for each volunteer as well as full insurance coverage for all our counsellors. We also have intern counsellors that are in the final stages of their qualification and providing support to the community. Our interns are closely supervised by the team leaders and supervisors and are able to provide an amazing collaborative service to clients.

We are not government funded and we do not receive donations we are fully self funded counsellors.

We focus on making the maximum positive effort for our community and our clients. Our clients have access to trained, qualified and registered counsellors.

If you need support then help is at hand, if you don't feel connected with the assigned counsellor we can simply pair you up with another – this is about your mental health journey.

Who We Are

The Nyugumba Indigenous Men's Program aims to reduce family violence within the Raymond Terrace, Port Stephens, Karuah and Newcastle areas.

We provide intensive case coordination
Therapeutic work
Advocacy work

For Indigenous men who use violence as well as their partners and children.

Our Mission

Our goal is to provide a service that works with families in a holistic manner to improve safety and reduce the intergenerational impacts of family violence.

We work from a trauma informed and strengths perspective, and have a specific focus on the role culture plays in supporting the wellbeing of participants in our program.

Nyugumba Men's Program

Our Services

Intensive case coordination

This takes place over a period of at least six months, wherein we work with Indigenous men and their families to develop ways of meeting their needs and achieving their goals.

Indigenous men's programs

We both facilitate and refer to other agencies that facilitate mental health and behaviour change programs for Indigenous men who use violence.

Safety planning

We work with partners and children to develop safety plans for when violence occurs.

Additional programs for partners and children

We both facilitate and refer to other agencies that facilitate wellbeing programs for partners and children experiencing family violence.

Community days

We host community days to help build collaboration between our program, its participants, and other services in the region.

We have a strong focus on working in partnership and collaboration with external services, community, and family.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the Nyugumba program an individual must:

Be of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent, or have Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander family

AND

Be in a situation where violence is or has been present in the home and/or have recent contact with the child protection or justice system

Referrals

We accept both external agency and self referrals.

Alcoholics Anonymous Preamble

Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of people who share their experience, strength and hope with each other that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism.

The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. There are no dues or fees for A.A. membership; we are self-supporting through our own contributions. A.A. is not allied with any sect, denomination, politics, organisation or institution; does not wish to engage in any controversy, neither endorses nor opposes any causes. Our primary purpose is to stay sober and help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety.
