

Yaaro Support services

The aim of this service is to link Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people ranging from Teenagers to Elders and their families' experiencing issues with Alcohol and Other Drugs to services and Treatments.

We can provide case management, support work, assistance with referrals to appropriate AOD counselling services & treatments and advocate on behalf of clients.

Yaaro program is a voluntary support service.

Please complete the below information regarding your client and return to Program Coordinator Linda Andrews linda@wandiyali.com.au

Date of Request:
Referral agency:
Referrer name:
Contact Number:
Email:

Client Information:

How does the client identify	Aboriginal	Torres Strait Islander
Name:
D.O.B
Address:
Contact No.
Email:
Income type

Any risk to staff	(e.g. Aggressive behaviour towards worker, dangerous pets etc.)
Current drug and/or alcohol use:	(e.g. what substance/s are they using, quantity of use)
Previous drug and/or alcohol use:	(e.g. what substance/s are they using, quantity of use)
Current Medical issues/ Disability: (specify if yes)
Current Services Involved:

Please specify areas of appropriate AOD assistance:	(e.g. AOD rehab, counselling, MH support)
Current AVO:
Background history:

Partner/Significant Other:
Name:
Address:

